MESSAGE from the Superintendent

As the District navigates the challenges of COVID every day, we are continuing to provide students with a high-quality educational experience in all grades. We realize that some of the changes in the Safe Learning Plan require students, parents and staff to adjust, but our constant focus is on keeping students and staff safe and in school. We know that most students are learning at high levels.

Another aspect of our efforts to support students again this year is addressing their mental health needs, which has been more challenging with the impact of COVID mitigation efforts. We realize that some of the measures we are using to keep students safe and learning at high levels are also creating serious mental issues for some students. The vulnerable students need our support and the support their families provide to get them through this challenging time.

We are also continuing the great work required by the School Board through the goals they have established this year. Minnetonka has been focused on academic success that enables graduates to be successful in life, and we are continuing to make improvements that will lead to greater learning and more success. Ironically, some even criticize us for those efforts.

The goals for this year focus on excellence for all students and their well-being. We have made significant progress on assuring those struggling students achieve at higher levels and make important progress throughout their years in school. The Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) program has built on prior efforts to support students at various levels of achievement by assuring that data are used to make determinations for the next level of intervention. These efforts include students receiving Special Education services, but it is not limited to those students. We want every student to be successful, and these new strategies are helping us assure that goal is met.

Other work under the goals includes continuing our efforts to assure that all students believe they belong in our schools and are respected for who they are. We are also continuing work on the expectation that we will broaden our already diverse staff even further.
